

The Four Weeks of Christmas

(Now until January 20, the most dangerous time in history)

December 20, 2024—On December 18, at the British-run Council on Foreign Relations, Secretary of State Tony Blinken said, “My objective now is to make sure that we give the strongest possible hand to President Trump to play if there's going to be a negotiation.” Translation: “We in the collective Biden Administration, on behalf of the British Crown, are seeking to blow up every possibility for the incoming President Donald Trump to make peace. We are willing to risk thermonuclear war to do so.” As Mr. Blinken was speaking, six American-made ATACMS and four British-made Storm Shadow missiles were hurtling toward their destination inside Russia.

The next four weeks leading into the January 20th inauguration of President Donald Trump are therefore the most dangerous period of time in human history.

Blinken's December 18 comments confirm what was already obvious: war with Russia must be locked in, irreversibly, before Donald Trump takes office. Furthermore, the dying British liberal imperial system intends to prevent its recaptured American colony from making peace with any nation, be it Russia, China, Iran or even North Korea.

We the American people, must, in this holiday season, summon the better angels of our nature to pull our nation and the world off this trajectory of doom. We must insist that our Republic uphold the principles which we declared “self evident Truths” in our Declaration of Independence—namely, that every human being, not merely those born in a particular location, but every human being on earth or above it, has the right to “Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.” Our nation was to be a bulwark against British colonialism, not the enforcer of it.

Nowhere in the words of Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, or John Quincy Adams will you see it written, “We will be the leaders of the free world.” They understood that freedom is an elusive thing; as soon as you seek to impose it upon someone else, it has disappeared.

What do you think John Quincy Adams would have thought about Stratcom's Rear Admiral Thomas Buchanan, who stated on Nov 20th at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) on the question of a nuclear “exchange” with Russia:

“I think everybody would agree if we have to have an exchange, then we want to do it in terms that are most acceptable to the United States. So it's terms that are most acceptable to the United States that puts us in a position to continue to lead the world, right? So we're largely viewed as the world leader.”

Are we the world leader because we are willing to annihilate ourselves and everyone else in a nuclear war? As long as we have some nukes left over, Buchanan says, if we're not dead enough, we can nuke everyone again. This is pure insanity! And he has not been fired, or even demoted.

Since it is Christmas, let us consider the words of Jesus as reported by Matthew:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,

for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Stand for righteousness this holiday season. Pick up the phone, the pen, the bullhorn and tell your government and your neighbors, this madness must stop!

Call your congressman to support HR 10218 to ban ATTACMS missiles for Ukraine. This Congress or the new Congress coming in on January 3 could invoke Article 1, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution and stop sending long range missiles and American “military specialists” to Ukraine. Don’t let your representatives abrogate their sworn commitment to the Constitution. There has been no declaration of war, therefore, no weapons or troops!

In the spirit of Christmas, stop arming the modern-day King Herod Bibi Netanyahu who has desecrated the birthplace of Christ with his genocidal war, and who might be reckless enough to use the nuclear weapons that everyone knows he has.

---

Locate your Congressman Here:

---

Sign up here for regular updates and marching orders

PAID FOR BY THE LAROCHE ORGANIZATION
AND NOT AUTHORIZED BY ANY CANDIDATE OR CANDIDATE'S COMMITTEE